DETAILED ACTION

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the padding material in claim 9, the water resistant coating in claim 12, the pockets in claim 15, the handle in claim 17, the attachment means in claim 18, the strap being securable to a door handle, hanger rod in claim 19, the hook in claim 20 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will be held in abeyance.

2. Claims 9, 10, and 19-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. It is unclear how the padding material would provide cushioning along the edges of the rolling suitcase. See drawing objection above.

Regarding claim 10, it is unclear how the suitcase has an access opening at the top end as shown in Fig. 6 while having a retractable handle as shown in Fig. 1. It seems that the opening would interfere with the handle.

Regarding claims 19-20, the specification fails to show the strap with releasable buckle and the integral hook. See drawing objections.

3. Claims 14, and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 14, the "entire interior portion" has no antecedent basis.

In claim 20, "itegral" is misspelled.

4. Claims 1, 3-5, 7, 11, 13, and 15-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Godshaw et al. (6109402). Godshaw teaches a wheeled rolling suitcase and a garment holder wraps around the outside of the suitcase and against the outer surface of the suitcase by at least one releasable attachment means.

Regarding claims 3-5, note the male and female clips at 82.

The garment holder in Godshaw is wrapped around the perimeter as claimed.

5. Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Godshaw in view of Plath (5240106). Plath teaches that it is known in the art to provide hook and loop fasteners for attaching another containers at 59, 60, and 30. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to provide hook and loop fasteners in Godshaw as taught by Plath to provide added protection.

6. Claim 8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Godshaw in view of Lin (6220412). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to make the wheels from polymer (polyurethane) in Godshaw as taught by Lin, col. 3, ln. 57, to provide the desired material for the wheels.

7. As best understood view of the 112 matters above, claim 9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Godshaw in view of Wei-Chih (6035982). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to provide padding material in Godshaw as taught by Wei-Chih, at 30 and 20, to provide added protection.

8. Claim 10 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Godshaw in view of Bieber et al. (5645146). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to provide an access opening in Godshaw as taught by Bieber, at opening 32, to keep the handle secured.

9. Claim 20 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Godshaw in view of Plath (5311972). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to provide a strap with releasable buckle in Godshaw as taught by Plath to enable one to hang the garment bag easily.

10. Claim 20 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Godshaw in view of Schwartzstein (4170282). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to provide an integral hook in Godshaw as taught by Schwartzstein, at 106, to enable one to hang the garment bag easily. ✓

11. Claims 11, and 14-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Latshaw (5547052). Latshaw teaches a combination wheeled rolling suitcase and a detachable garment holder by at least one attachment means.

Regarding claim 15, note the pockets 101 and b.

Regarding claim 19, note the releasable buckles and the hook at 167.

12. Claim 12 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over either Godshaw or Latshaw in view of Hjelle (5005679). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to provide a water resistant coating in Godshaw as taught by Hjelle, col. 4, ln. 39, to provide the desired protection for the container.

13. Claims 1, 3-7, 11, 13, and 14-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Scicluna et al. (5323887) in view of Ghiassi (4598803). Scicluna teaches a luggage with wheels and retractable handle on top of the container. Scicluna meets all claimed limitations except for the garment bag being wrapped around the case. Ghiassi teaches that it is known in the art to provide a garment bag being wrapped around the case. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to provide a garment bag wrapped around the case in Scicluna as taught by Ghiassi to move both the bag and the luggage case easily.

14. Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the Scicluna rejection in view of Plath (5240106). Plath teaches that it is known in the art to provide hook and loop fasteners for attaching another containers at 59, 60, and 30. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to provide hook and loop fasteners in the Scicluna rejection as taught by Plath to provide added protection.

15. Claim 8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the Scicluna rejection in view of Lin (6220412). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to make the wheels from polymer (polyurethane) in the Scicluna rejection as taught by Lin, col. 3, ln. 57 to provide the desired material for the wheels.

16. As best understood view of the 112 matters above, claim 9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the Scicluna rejection in view of Wei-Chih (6035982). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to provide padding material in the Scicluna rejection as taught by Wei-Chih, at 30 and 20, to provide added protection.

17. Claim 12 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the Scicluna rejection in view of Hjelle (5005679). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to provide a water resistant coating in the Scicluna rejection as taught by Hjelle, col. 4, ln. 39, to provide the desired protection for the container.
